APPENDIX

TO THE

HISTORY AND ANTIQUITIES

OF

WINDSOR CASTLE,

AND

The moſt Noble ORDER of the GARTER;

CONTAINING,

The NAMES of the KNIGHTS of the GARTER,
With their ſeveral STILES, or TITLES at large, from their Eſchuteons, or Plates of ARMS in St. GEORGE's Chapel,

An Alphabetical INDEX of all the PLATES of ARMS of the KNIGHTS COMPANIONS, mentioned in the ſaid HISTORY;
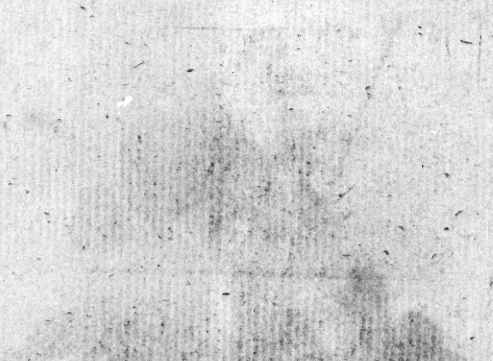
With other neceſſary ADDITIONS to the preſent Year.

ETON; MDCCLXII.



TO THE

Moſt High MONARCH,

GEORGE the THIRD,

KING of GREAT-BRITAIN, &c.

SOVEREIGN of the moſt Noble ORDER of the GARTER.

SIR,

THE HISTORY of WINDSOR CASTLE, and the ORDER of the GARTER, was inſcribed to your MAJESTY's ROYAL FATHER, by the gracious Appointment of His ROYAL HIGHNESS. At the ſame Time, the Author had the Honour to preſent a Copy of that Work to your MAJESTY, then newly elected a KNIGHT COMPANION of that moſt Noble ORDER.

THE preſent Publication, waits on Your MAJESTY, by the Honour of Your MAJESTY's Royal Permiſſion, at that happy Period of Time, when Your MAJESTY aſſumes the STALL of SOVEREIGNTY of that moſt Illuſtrious ORDER of KNIGHTHOOD, and the whole NATION, with the united Voice of Joy, Congratulate Your MAJESTY on the Birth of His ROYAL HIGHNESS, the PRINCE of WALES; and the happy Recovery of Your ROYAL CONSORT, our All-Gracious QUEEN.

MAY Heaven increaſe the Felicity of your MAJESTY, and the ROYAL FAMILY; and long continue Your MAJESTY the Illuſtrious SOVEREIGN of the ORDER of the GARTER, and a Bleſſing to Your People, in every Part of Your wide extended EMPIRE.

WITH theſe Sentiments of Duty, Your MAJESTY's Gracious Acceptance of this Continuation of the KNIGHTS of the GARTER, is moſt humbly implored, by

ROYAL SIR,

Your MAJESTY's

Dutiful, and

Moſt Obedient Subject,

JOS. POTE.

THE TITLES at large of the KNIGHTS of the GARTER from their Eſcutcheons, or Plates of Arms in the Choir of St. GEORGE'S Chapel, from the Inſtitution of that moſt illuſtrious ORDER by King EDWARD III. to the Year 1741, were firſt collected and printed in the HISTORY of WINDSOR CASTLE, and the ORDER of the GARTER, in the Year 1749.

The Succeſſion of the KNIGHTS COMPANIONS ſince that Publication, has greatly increaſed the Number of thoſe Plates: This makes an APPENDIX neceſſary, in order to continue the like Memorial of Honour, by the Addition of the Stiles or Titles at large of thoſe KNIGHTS alſo, who have been inſtalled COMPANIONS of that moſt Noble ORDER, from the Year 1741, to the preſent Inſtallation.

Farther, A General INDEX of the KNIGHTS of the GARTER has never yet been publiſhed by any Author: A like INDEX, or Alphabetical Catalogue of the ſeveral Titles, or Plates of Arms mentioned in the above HISTORY of WINDSOR CASTLE, &c. and continued in this APPENDIX, is now alſo firſt publiſhed: Theſe INDEXES are equally neceſſary, and make uſeful Additions to that HISTORY, as they afford a ready Opportunity to find out the ſeveral Noble Perſonages who have been COMPANIONS of this illuſtrious SOCIETY from the Firſt Founders to the preſent Time, and alſo of thoſe KNIGHTS in particular, whoſe Plates of Arms remain in St. GEORGE'S Chapel.

It is Matter of Concern that this latter Collection was not before made, whereby many KNIGHTS COMPANIONS agreeable to the Statutes of Inſtitution, would have been remembered with Honour, whoſe Plates are now loſt by Time, or other incidental Cauſe *: Theſe Publications provide againſt a future Contingency of this Nature, and beſides, will have their Uſe in Hiſtory.

It remains only to obſerve, that in the INDEX of the TITLES at large, the Orthography of each Plate is ſtrictly attended to, however different the Names may be found in one and the ſame Noble Family.

September 24, 1762.

CEREMONIES

Observed in Public of the

SOVEREIGN,

AND

KNIGHTS COMPANIONS

OF THE

Moſt Noble Order of the GARTER at WINDSOR,

On Wednesday the 22d Day of September, 1762;

AT THE

INSTALLATION

OF HIS

Royal Highneſs PRINCE WILLIAM,

And the EARL of BUTE.

CEREMONIES, &c.

THE KNIGHTS COMPANIONS in the full Habit of the ORDER, and the OFFICERS of the ORDER in their Mantles, attended the SOVEREIGN in the Royal Apartment; the OFFICERS of Arms in the Preſence Chamber; and the PREBENDS and POOR-KNIGHTS in the Guard Room.

His Royal Highneſs PRINCE WILLIAM, and the Earl of BUTE, the two KNIGHTS Elect, being in the Under-Habit of the ORDER, retired, before the Proceſſion began, to their Chairs in the Eaſt Iſle of the Chapel, behind the Altar.

A little after Eleven o'Clock, the SOVEREIGN coming under His State, GARTER King of Arms called over the KNIGHTS; and a Proceſſion was made to the Chapter-Houſe from the Royal Apartments, through the two Courts down to the Great Weſt Door of the Chapel into the North Iſle, in the following Order.

POOR KNIGHTS, Two and Two.

PREBENDS, Two and Two.

PURSUIVANTS, and HERALDS at Arms, Two and Two.

NORROY King of Arms. CLARENCEUX King of Arms.

Earl TEMPLE.

Marquis of ROCKINGHAM. Earl WALDEGRAVE.

Earl of HERTFORD. Earl of NORTHUMBERLAND.

Duke of DEVONSHIRE. Earl of CARDIGAN.

Earl of WINCHELSEA. Earl of LINCOLN.

Duke of LEEDS. Duke of KINGSTON.

Duke of RUTLAND.

Duke of NEWCASTLE.

His Royal Highneſs the Duke of YORK.

His Royal Highneſs the Duke of CUMBERLAND.

GENTLE-

GENTLEMAN USHER of the Black Rod with his Rod. — The REGISTER. — GARTER King of Arms with his Rod or Scepter.

The Biſhop of SALISBURY, Chancellor of the ORDER. — The Biſhop of WINCHESTER, Prelate of the ORDER.

The Vice CHAMBERLAIN.

The Sword of State, borne by the Duke of ANCASTER.

The SOVEREIGN, in the full Habit of the ORDER, His Train borne by the Eldeſt Sons of the Dukes of LEEDS and DEVONSHIRE, and the Maſter of the Robes.

The Band of Gentlemen Penſioners.

In this Manner proceediug into the North Iſle of the Chapel, the POOR KNIGHTS, PREBENDS, and OFFICERS of Arms, halted beyond the Chapter Houſe Door.

The CHANCELLOR not having been ſworn, remained in the Iſle; none entering with the SOVEREIGN into the Chapter Houſe, but the KNIGHTS and ſworn OFFICERS of the ORDER.

The SOVEREIGN being ſeated, the KNIGHTS took their Places.

The Biſhop of SALISBURY attended at the Door, and on his Petition to be admitted to take the Oath of CHANCELLOR of the ORDER, he was introduced by Garter and Black Rod; the Regiſter adminſtred the Oath; And the CHANCELLOR having kiſſed the SOVEREIGN's Hand, he withdrew to his Place.

GARTER then introduced his Royal Highneſs PRINCE WILLIAM, who was received at the Chapter Houſe Door by the two junior Knights, and conducted to the Table, where the Surcoat, Girdle, and Sword had been placed; And GARTER preſenting the Surcoat to the two ſenior Knights, they Inveſted his ROYAL HIGHNESS therewith, the CHANCELLOR reading the Admonition.

Then GARTER preſented the Girdle, in like manner, and afterwards the Hanger and Sword, which were ſeverally put on.

GARTER then introduced the Earl of BUTE, who was received and inveſted in like manner, the REGISTER reading the Admonition.

THE

THE Knights Elect continue in the Chapter-House, while the Procession to the Chapel is made, passing down to the West End of the Isle, and up the Middle Isle into the Choir, in the following Order.

FIRST, the Poor Knights, who coming into the Choir, make their Reverences altogether, and place themselves on each side near the Altar.

THE PREBENDS make their Reverences in like manner, and go to their Seats under the Stalls.

THE OFFICERS of ARMS, making their Reverences, stand next to the Poor Knights.

THEN the KNIGHTS COMPANIONS, in the Order they walked; singly, or with his Companion, make their Reverences, and retire under their Banners, where they stand.

THE REGISTER, GARTER, and BLACK-ROD, make their Reverences together, and stand before their Form.

THE CHANCELLOR and PRELATE the like.

THE Sword of STATE borne by having the VICE CHAMBERLAIN on his Left-hand, who (the SOVEREIGN being seated) stand on the Steps before, or under the SOVEREIGN's STALL,

THE SOVEREIGN, having his Train borne by two eldest Sons of Dukes or Earls, and the Master of the Robes, makes one Reverence to the Altar, and being in his Stall repeats the same; the Train-bearers standing upon the Steps going up to the SOVEREIGN's STALL.

THE PRELATE is conducted to the Altar by the Serjeant of the Vestry, and two PREBENDS by the Verger.

THEN GARTER, with the usual Reverences, takes up the Banner of the late SOVEREIGN, and holding it up, two Officers of Arms immediately join, and making their Reverences, repair to the two senior Knights, who thereupon join making their Reverences together, and receive the Banner from GARTER and being preceeded by the two HERALDS, advance to the first Step or Haut-Pas, where they repeat their Reverences, and coming to the Rails, make one Reverence to the Altar; then kneeling, they deliver the Banner to the Prelate, who, assisted by the Prebends, place it upright at the South End of the Altar.

The two Knihgts then return, with like Reverences, and ſtand under their Banners.

THE Sword is then delivered by Garter to the two next ſenior Knights, who offer it in like manner.

THE Helm and Creſt by the next two ſenior Knights.

THE Hatchments of the late Duke of PORTLAND are to be offered with the ſame Ceremonies.

GARTER then Summons each Knight to aſcend into his Stall, who ſingly, or joyning with his Companion, make their Reverences, and being in their Stalls repeat the ſame.

ALL the Knights being thus in their Stalls, GARTER Summons the two ſenior Knights under their Banners, to Inſtal his Royal Highneſs Prince WILLIAM; And a Proceſſion is made back to the Chapter-houſe as follows:

POOR KNIGHTS.

OFFICERS of ARMS.

THE REGISTER, GARTER, and BLACK-ROD, as before.

THE CHANCELLOR.

THE two KNIGHTS, if Companions together, if not ſingle, who with the Officers of the Order go into the Chapter-houſe, from whence they return to the Choir in the following Order.

POOR KNIGHTS.

OFFICERS of ARMS.

GARTER, carrying on a Cuſhion, the Mantle, Hood, Great-Collar, and Book of Statutes; having on his Right-hand, the Regiſter, carrying in his Hand the New Teſtament, and the Form of the Oath and Admonitions, and Black-Rod on his Left-hand.

THE CHANCELLOR.

THE two KNIGHTS, having his Royal Highneſs Prince WILLIAM between them in his Surcoat and Sword, carrying his Cap and Feather in his Hand.

ALL Entering the Choir with the uſual Reverences; GARTER, with the REGISTER and BLACK-ROD, go under the PRINCE's Stall, GARTER placing the Cuſhion upon the Deſk of the lower Stall.

THE

THE two KNIGHTS with the PRINCE, enter into the lower Stall, where the REGISTER Adminiſters the Oath, BLACK-ROD holding the Book.

THEN the KNIGHTS conduct the PRINCE into the upper Stall, the CHANCELLOR and GARTER entring into the lower Stall; the REGISTER and BLACK-ROD remaining in the Area.

GARTER then preſents the Mantle to the Knights, who inveſts his Royal Highneſs therewith, the Chancellor reading the Admonition.

NEXT, GARTER preſents the Hood, which is put on over the Right-Shoulder, bringing the End of the Tippets before, and tucking them under the Girdle.

THEN GARTER preſents the Great-Collar and GEORGE, which is put on by the Knights, whilſt the Chancellor reads the Admonition.

GARTER then preſents the Statute Book, which is delivered to the PRINCE; And the Knights placing the Cap and Feather on his Royal Highneſs's Head, ſeat him in his Stall; Whereupon riſing up, he makes his Reverences to the Altar and the SOVEREIGN: And the two Knights after Embracing and Congratulating Him, deſcend, make their Reverences together, and going into their Stalls, repeat the ſame and ſit down, the Officers returning to their Places

THEN GARTER Summons down the two next ſenior Knights to Inſtal the Earl of BUTE, which is performed in the ſame manner, except the Attendance of the Chancellor, the Regiſter now pronouncing the Admonitions.

THE KNIGHTS, thus Inſtalled, Divine Service begins.

AT the Words of the Offertory.—Let your Lights ſo ſhine,—The Organs playing, the Officers of the Wardrobe ſpread a Carpet on the Steps before the Altar, and Black-Rod making his Obeiſances, goes up to the Rails of the Altar, on the Right-ſide, where he receives from the Yeoman of the Wardrobe, a rich Carpet and Cuſhion, which with the Aſſiſtance of the Yeoman he lays down for the SOVEREIGN to kneel upon.

IN the mean Time GARTER Summons the Knights from their Stalls, beginning with the Junior, each Knight making his Reverences in his Stall, and repeating the ſame with his Companion in the Choir, retires under his Banner.

ALL the Knights ſtanding thus under their Banners, and the Prelate at the Altar to receive the Offerings.

THE SOVEREIGN, making his Reverence to the Altar, deſcends from his Stall, and then making another Reverence, proceeds to the Offering in the following Order.

GARTER and the REGISTER.

THE CHANCELLOR.

THE VICE CHAMBERLAIN—The Sword of State.

THE SOVEREIGN, his Train borne.

As the Proceſſion paſſes the ſenior Knight, or Knight appointed to deliver the Offering to the SOVEREIGN: He makes his Reverence, and places himſelf a little behind his MAJESTY on the Right-ſide, and coming againſt the Lord Chamberlain's Stall, he comes from under his Banner, going a little behind the SOVEREIGN on the Left-ſide.

THE SOVEREIGN coming to the Rails of the Altar, Black-Rod delivers the Offering on his Knee to the Knight, who delivers it to the SOVEREIGN; And His MAJESTY taking off his Cap, and kneeling, puts the Offering into the Baſon, held by the Prelate, aſſiſted by the Prebends.

THE SOVEREIGN riſing, makes his Reverence to the Altar, another in the Middle of the Choir (all the Attendants turning as His MAJESTY does, and making their Reverences at the ſame Time) and being in his Stall, another.

THE Lord Chamberlain, and the Knight who delivered the Offering, retiring under their Banners when they come oppoſite to them.

DURING the SOVEREIGN's Return, the Officers of the Wardrobe remove the Carpet and Cuſhion whereon His MAJESTY had kneeled, leaving the firſt Carpet and two Cuſhions for the Knights, and Black-Rod returns to his Place with the uſual Reverences.

ALL the Knights thus ſtanding under their Banners, two Officers of Arms join with uſual Reverences, and go to the ſenior Knight, who thereupon making his Reverenees in the Middle of the Choir, is conducted to the Altar, where taking off his Cap, and kneeling down, he offers Gold and Silver in the Baſon, and returning in the ſame Order, goes into his Stall, where making his Reverences he ſits down.

THEN

THEN the next two Officers of Arms attend the next Knight, or Knights in Seniority being Companions, who offer in like manner, and ſo on till all the Knights have offered, and are returned to their Stalls.

DIVINE Service goes on, and being ended, the Prelate is conducted to his Seat by the Serjeant of the Veſtry.

GARTER then Summons the Knights under their Banners, juniors firſt, which done,

THE Poor Knights make their Reverences, and go out of the Choir; Then the Prebendaries, then the Officers of Arms, then the Knights, then the Officers of the Order, then the Sword of State, and the SOVEREIGN as before; thus proceeding to the Great Weſt Door of the Chapel, and up the South Iſle, out at the South Door to the upper Caſtle.

THE Drums and Trumpets halt at the Foot of the Stairs.

THE Poor Knights and Prebends fall off on either ſide, in the Guard Chamber.

THE Officers of Arms in the Preſence Chamber.

THE Knights Companions divide on either ſide, above them.

THE SOVEREIGN, having the Officers before him, goes under the State, where he ſalutes the Knights by pulling off his Cap and Feather, and then retires till Dinner Time.

When the firſt Service is placed on the Table of the SOVEREIGN and KNIGHTS, the Officers and Knights being in their Order in the Preſence Chamber, as before; and His MAJESTY under the State, a Proceſſion is made to St. GEORGE's Hall.

Viz. THE Officers of Arms, The Knights in their Order, The Officers of the Order. The SOVEREIGN.

THE Officers of Arms divide at the lower End of the Hall, the Knights above them on either ſide, the Seniors uppermoſt, who take off their Caps and Feathers as the SOVEREIGN paſſes. The Officers of the Order proceed before the SOVEREIGN to the Haut-pas, and then go behind the Knights.

THE SOVEREIGN being under his State, ſalutes the Knights, and their Royal Highneſſes aſcend the Haut-pas, and ſtand at the End of the Table.

GRACE being ſaid by the Prelate, the SOVEREIGN ſits down.

THEN the Knights put on their Caps, and are conducted by the Officers of Arms, Seniors firſt, to the Inſide of the Table at the lower End

TOWARDS the latter End of the firſt Courſe, a large gilt Cup being brought to the SOVEREIGN by the Cupberer, His MAJESTY drinks to the Knights, who ſtanding up uncovered, all together pledge the SOVEREIGN, and then ſet down and put on their Caps.

THE ſecond Courſe is then brought in as follows:

FOUR Serjeants at Arms with their Maces, two and two.

COMPTROLLER and Treaſurer of the Houſhold.

THE Sewer.

GENTLEMEN Penſioners bearing the Diſhes.

Two Clerks of the Green Cloth.

Two Clerks Camptrollers.

A Clerk of the Kitchen.

THE ſecond Courſe, ſerved up to the Knight's Table by the Yeomen of the Guard.

IMMEDIATELY after, Garter attended by all the Officers of Arms, advances from the lower End of the Hall, with the uſual Reverences, to the Haut-paſs, and aſcending the loweſt Step, and crying Largeſs thrice, Proclaims the SOVEREIGN's Style, in Latin, French, and Engliſh.

GARTER then bowing to his Royal Highneſs Prince WILLIAM, he ſtands up, taking off his Cap and Feather, and Garter crying Largeſs twice, Proclaims his Royal Highneſs's Style in Engliſh.

THE Officers of Arms then retire backwards, with the uſual Reverences, till they come oppoſite to the Earl of BUTE, who ſtanding up uncovered, Garter with one Largeſs, Proclaims his Style in Engliſh.

THE Banquet is afterwards brought up to the SOVEREIGN's Table, with the ſame Ceremony as before; and to the Knights Table by the Yeomen of the Guard.

DINNER being ended, the Knights place themſelves on either ſide at the upper End of the Hall, and Grace being ſaid by the Prelate, and the SOVEREIGN having waſhed, the Knights all together make their Reverences to his MAJESTY, who puts off his Cap and Re-ſalutes them.

THEN the Knights and Officers Return to the Preſence Chamber, before the SOVEREIGN, in the ſame Order they came from thence.

S. MARTIN LEAKE, GARTER.
